Cajun Concert in Hermann—July 8, 9 & 10

(HERMANN, Mo.)—Aye-eeee! Stone Hill Winery is gearing up for the 22nd annual Cajun Concert on the Hill, set for July 8, 9 and 10. Recording artist Ed Gary and the Louisiana Cajun Aces will make the 800-mile trek from the bayous of Louisiana again this year to perform the three-day concert. Over the past two decades, this ever-popular concert has evolved into the summertime event of the season, drawing thousands of visitors from across the nation.

The band, known for being "true Cajun," released its first compact disc, titled Cajun All Time Favorites, in September 1999 to great reviews. The band's 2002 recording, C'est la Vie, was nominated by the Cajun French Music Association as best recording of the year in 2003, and Ed Gary was nominated for vocalist of the year. In 2004, the band released Du Coeur, and Gary was inducted into the CFMA Hall of Fame. In 2009, 20-Year Reunion...Dancing at Stone Hill Winery was released to coincide with Stone Hill Winery's 20th annual Cajun Concert. The band's authentic Cajun music runs the gamut from slow, poignant waltzes to heart-pounding, rug-cutting two-steps.

Accompanying the band will be a number of Cajun dancers who will encourage guests to join in and learn the tricky steps to all their dances during the three-day extravaganza. They'll even perform their own version of Mardi Gras on Sunday, and they'll offer free dance lessons to all pavilion ticket holders one hour before each concert.

Cold wine and zesty Cajun dishes of catfish, andouille sausage, jambalaya and red beans and rice will be available in our pavilion, and a more extensive Cajun menu will be offered at the Vintage Restaurant located next to the winery.

The concerts are scheduled, rain or shine, for Friday night, July 8, 6 p.m. - 10 p.m.; Saturday, July 9, 1 p.m. - 6 p.m. and Sunday, July 10, 1 p.m. - 6 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door two hours before each concert. Adult pavilion tickets-$12 each day; Grounds tickets-$5 each day. Special two- and three-day passes and children's tickets are available. For more information, call 800-909-9463.
